

Complex RFID system of a higher educational institution

System provides:

- Manufacture, registration and distribution of intellectual documents based on smart-cards.
- Effective work of gating system with differentiating access rights.
- On-line control of events registered by system or its elements
- Personalized interactive communication between system users and specialized services of the establishment.
- Personalized access to multimedia materials published in the Internet.
- Personalized access to computer network of the establishment and to the Internet in compliance with necessary requirements.
- Comprehensive automation of services for readers in libraries, maintenance of readers' electronic record cards and ordering books in advance via the Intranet.
- Scheduling of students independent work in reading rooms, university laboratories, computer classes.
- Possibility to provide students reduction of payments for services on the territory of the university.

Developers and partners of the project:

Center for Identification Systems - www.ids.by

Belarusian State University - www.bsu.by

Infocard - www.infocard.by

Scientific and Research Republican Unitary Enterprise - www.cniitu.by